Consistency is Key

Where has all our time gone? Over the past decades the work week has expanded, weekends have become free game to "outside the family responsibilities," and leisure time or relaxing with the family has taken a hit. Nannies, daycare providers, grandparents, and others share the "parenting" responsibilities for our children. All these factors have helped to create a scattered structure for our children and leave them lacking the one main ingredient they need in their young lives—consistency. Have you ever felt like this as a parent?

Many good parents, due to circumstances too numerous to list, find themselves agreeing with this conclusion but cannot change the circumstances that create it. Inconsistency between care-givers and children leads to excessive worrying, power-struggles, delayed development, and behavior issues. Kids need consistency in their lives. As they grow, learn, and develop, consistent parenting, teaching, discipline, and love helps form how each child views and interacts with the world around them.

As parents and caregivers we can turn to Deuteronomy 11:18-19 says, "So commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these words of mine. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up." Jesus is also a great example for parents. All through His life he lived with consistent compassion and structure.

Please don't despair, moms and dads! The challenges our children face may seem daunting but God is bigger. Please use the ideas and articles in this newsletter, and those to come, as ways to strengthen your family, to bring consistency to your parenting and structure to your children. Spend as much time with your kids as you can; at the dinner table, playing games, doing homework, and taking walks. Consider racing in and inviting your friends to race in this year's Amazing Family Race. The more time we invest in our kids and more consistent we are as parents/parenting units the better prepared our kids will be for life.

Praying with You,

Preston

Challenges Children Face

- In America, a divorce occurs every 30 seconds.
- Every day, 1,300 stepfamilies are formed.
- 31% of children ages 9 to 12 say they "worry a lot."
- 47% of children ages 9 to 12 suffer from insomnia.

Ask God:

1. To protect your family members and their faith during challenging times.
2. To make his love real to you during life's difficulties.
3. To help you trust him and cast all your cares on him (see 1 Peter 5:7).

Parenting Insights

In Children's Ministry Magazine, Greg Baird, founder of Kids in Focus ministries, offers five simple principles to give stressed-out children a B.R.E.A.K.

Be an example. Minimize any unnecessary stresses and learn to handle stress in a God-pleasing manner (see Philippians 4:6).

Relate. Spend time with children, share an interest, listen, and cheer them on.

Educate yourself. Learn what stressors your children face each day. What goes on at school and with their friends?

Ask questions. Concerned questions help you understand what children need and show that you really care.

Keep praying. Jesus works in children's lives. Pray fervently and without ceasing for your kids as they face life's challenges.

"For you are my hiding place; you protect me from trouble.... The Lord says, 'I will guide you along the best pathway for your life. I will advise you and watch over you.'"
Psalms 32:7-8

Troubles come to everyone, even Christians. But God promises shelter during all of life's storms.

Teachable Moments

1. Play Hide and Seek—With younger children, unwind by playing a fun game of Hide and Seek as a family. Then talk about how God always comes looking for us and always watches over us.

2. Lick Life's Problems—When life gets messy, it's more important than ever to spend one-on-one time with your children. If possible, take each child on a simple outing (for example, to an ice cream shop). Let your child air what's on his or her mind. Then share ways you can stick together and work out problems.
3. Create a Smile File—Stress is exhausting and removes our focus from life's many joys. Make a file, box, or journal where family members can put pictures or notes about God's blessings. Then look through it together when your family

Rely on God During Uncertainties

Family life has its fair share of challenges, and unexpected crises can knock us flat. Sometimes, these things can threaten the unity of our family itself. Illness, a broken marriage, job loss, and financial problems all bring uncertainty and anxiety. Even positive changes such as a new baby or a planned move can disrupt schedules and affect our relationships with each other and with God.

Although you can't control everything that comes your family's way, you can minimize the impact of stress and change. During uncertain times, children have three primary needs:

Consistent Relationships—When life gets tough, your children need reassurance and familiarity. Model the positive qualities of God, who's consistently present, unconditionally accepting, attentive, affirming, and reliable.

Lots of Boundaries and Structure—Keeping the same rules and schedules, as much as possible, helps children feel safe. When new or different situations arise, let kids know ahead of time what to expect. Then provide extra attention during transitions.

A Safe Place—Children need an accepting place where they can talk about what's happening in their lives. Be real and encourage kids to open up about their thoughts and emotions.

Family Experience: God Protects and Saves Use this excerpt from Group's "Crocodile Dock" vacation Bible school to remind your family of God's power amid life's struggles.

Say, "The Israelites, God's special people, were slaves in Egypt. Pharaoh, the Egyptian king, had been working God's people so hard, and they were so tired. God told Moses to go tell Pharaoh, 'Let my people go!' Moses went 10 times! Each time Pharaoh wouldn't let God's people go, God sent a plague on Egypt. A plague is a horrible thing that happens to a whole land. But God kept the Israelites safe from all these plagues."

Re-enact the first nine plagues, using these simple props and actions:

1. Blood to water—Drop red food coloring into water.
2. Frogs—Hop around the room.
3. Gnats—Make high-pitched buzzing sounds.
4. Flies—Make a lower-pitched sound and zoom around the room.
5. Diseased livestock—Moo and moan, then lie on the floor with your arms and legs sticking up in the air.
6. Boils—Use a washable red marker to put dots on your skin.
7. Hail—Throw paper wads at each other.
8. Locusts—Nibble on some snacks, pretending to be hungry insects.
9. Darkness—Turn off the lights or wear blindfolds.

After each plague, have everyone shout, "Let my people go!" Close by saying, "God is powerful. Only God could send those plagues and protect his people like that." Have family members each share a time they saw God's power in action. End in prayer, thanking God for using his power to protect and save your family.

Now Playing at the Movies

Movie: Night at the Museum: Battle at the Smithsonian

Release Date: May 22

Genre: Action, Comedy

Rating: PG for mild action and brief language

Cast: Ben Stiller, Robin Williams, Amy Adams, Dick Van Dyke, Owen Wilson, Hank Azaria

Synopsis: Security guard Larry Daley returns to the big screen to rescue an exhibit sent to the Smithsonian by mistake. The famed Institute comes alive, as presidents and historical figures (such as Amelia Earhart) help battle an evil pharaoh.

Discussion Questions: Which historical figures do you admire most, and why? What does it take to become famous or memorable? Read Hebrews 11. What stands out about your life and your faith? Even though you're young, what impact do you have on other people?

New Christian Music Release

Artist: Phillip LaRue

Album: Let the Road Pave Itself

Artist Info: At age 16, Phillip LaRue picked up a guitar during a bout with mono. In 2000, he and his sister, Natalie, formed a Christian-music duo known as LaRue. The group, which had several hits, disbanded when Natalie got married.

Summary: Phillip LaRue's debut solo album has an honest, personal feel. Several songs are real-life musical stories. "Erase and Rewind" was inspired by a friend's admission of suicidal thoughts. The hope-filled "Mountains High and Valleys Low" explores doubt and faith. "Chasing the Daylight" addresses faith and resilience during dark times. "It's in the unraveling of life that we find God even more."

Discussion Questions: What type of doubts do you struggle with? What makes you feel hopeful, and why? Read Romans 8:38-39. How does it feel to hear that nothing can separate you from God's love?

What Games Are Out

Title	Content	Rating & Platform
Flock	Players are "aliens" who control a UFO, abduct livestock, and solve puzzles. The game contains some coarse wordplay.	E; Xbox 360, PS3, PC
Disney Pure	In this offroad-racing game, players race ATVs through high-speed courses. It's filled with action, mud, and energetic music.	E; PS3, Xbox 360
Pet Pals: Animal Doctor	Future veterinarians can diagnose and "treat" a variety of 3-D animals. Realistic-looking surgeries contain mild blood.	E10+; Wii

RATINGS: EC=Early Childhood, E=Everyone (ages 6+), E10+ (ages 10+), T=Teen (ages 13+)

Culture & Trends

What's happening right now that may affect your children and family:

- Girls are buying and using beauty products earlier than ever. Among girls ages 6 to 9, 43% use lipstick or lipgloss and 38% use hairstyling products. Each month, girls 8 to 12 spend $40 million on beauty products.
- While families are discovering the benefits of libraries, public-library budgets across America are shrinking.

Quick Stats

- As of 2007, 40% of U.S. births were to single mothers. That's up 25% from 2002. (Nat'l Center for Health Statistics)
- A whopping 99% of moms give themselves a parenting grade of excellent or good. (Good Housekeeping)
- Four in 10 moms talk with their own mothers at least once a day.
